

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

City Hall Employees Must Wait at Least Another Week.

NEW SALARY ORDINANCE IS SUBMITTED

City Comptroller Westberg Submits Communication to the Council Relative to Status of Municipal Funds Odds and Ends.

City officials and employees must wait at least one week more before they receive their salaries for December. The finance and claims committee of the city council prepared a new salary ordinance and submitted it to the council last night. Under the charter it is possible to introduce and pass at the same meeting one ordinance each month. This is a special provision for the purpose of running salary ordinances through, but the original salary ordinance was passed in this manner and consequently the new ordinance must wait until the council meets next week.

Councilman Haswell is still of the opinion that the money apportioned to various departments constitutes special funds and says he will oppose the new ordinance, which provides for the payment of the salary lists of the departments from the general fund. The following letter explaining his refusal to pass warrants in accordance with the amendments secured by Mr. Haswell was submitted to the council by City Comptroller Westberg:

City Comptroller's Letter.

"I have received from the city clerk appropriation ordinance No. 24 and have issued warrants in accordance with the same on the market place fund, road fund, Omaha sewer fund, fire fund, police fund and library fund. Your honorable body endorsed the ordinance by striking out 'general fund' and inserting 'special fund.' As I know of no special fund from which the various departments that have heretofore been provided for out of the general fund, under ordinance No. 4738, may be paid, I am unable to issue warrants on the general fund. I have no authority for such action.

"At the request of the finance committee of the city council, I, together with the president and city attorney, have prepared another appropriation ordinance, drawn on the general fund, to provide for the December salaries of the various departments, which I herewith submit to your honorable body for such consideration as shall seem to you just and proper."

"At the request of City Attorney Connell the council passed a resolution fixing January 22 as the date upon which the various departments shall begin to draw on the Board of Equalization. The session will be for not less than five days. January 15 was the date originally selected, but the sitting must be advertised for seven days and on that account it was thought best to postpone the session for one week.

Status of the Treasury.

Comptroller John N. Westberg reported that on January 2 the city treasurer had on hand funds amounting to $493,037.58. Of this sum $2,636.48 was in cash and $18,758.08 in checks for deposit. City funds were on deposit in various banks to the amount of $115,447.91, while the school funds aggregated $235,634.82. The amount in the police relief fund was $4,040.29. Special funds in banks amounted to $35,000.

A communication was read from the Vessel Manufacturing company, which is desirous of erecting a frame factory covered with sheet iron in the railroad yards at Sixth and Howard streets. The company stated that it cannot secure a lease from the railroad company, which is unable to build a permanent structure. The council placed the matter on file.

South Omaha News.

The delegation to go from the South Omaha Live Stock exchange to the convention of stockmen at Salt Lake City Sunday is greatly encouraged over the prospects for securing the next convention for Omaha. Here is what the Denver Stockman says of the idea: "Omaha seems the next meeting of the National Live Stock association in that city in 1902. As long as Denver is not to have the convention next year, and Denver has practically agreed to keep hands off for another year, Colorado stockmen favor Omaha for the meeting place. It is not too far from this state and is a popular market with western shippers."

The convention will be called together on Tuesday and the delegates will be welcomed by Governor Wells of Utah. A response will be made by Hon. J. M. Allen of Nebraska. President John Springer will read his annual report, this to be followed by five-minute reports on conditions in the states represented by the delegates.

These papers will be read: "Our National Live Stock," L. G. Powers, chief statistician for agriculture of the Census department.

"Establishing Breeds of Cattle," Abraham Renick, Sycamore, Ky.

"American Live Stock and Breeds Men's Report," Trade, Louisville, Tenn.

"The American Saddle Horse and the Assessment Classification of Live Stock," General John B. Castleman, Louisville, Ky.

"Relation of Irrigation to the Live Stock Industry," George H. Maxwell, Chicago.

Lost Hair Restored!

Ayer's Hair Vigor is certainly the most economical preparation of its kind on the market. A little of it goes a long way. And then, what you don't need now you can use some other time just as well.

It doesn't take much of it to stop falling of the hair, restore color to gray hair, cure dandruff, and keep the hair soft and glossy. There's a great deal of good and an immense amount of satisfaction in every bottle of it.

One dollar a bottle.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us $1.00 and we will send you a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor by express, prepaid. Be sure and give your nearest express office.

Put it on the face, neck, and scalp.

Send for our handsome book on The Hair.

Hughitt, president Chicago & Northwestern railway.

"Illinois Live Stock Exchanges and Their Relation to the Producer," George B. Van Horn.

"What the Press Has Done for the Live Stock Industry," C. C. Goodwin, Salt Lake City.

"The Great Bill," This will be opposed by John F. Hooker of New York and favored by P. W. Wilson of Elgin, Ill.

"Should the Government Lease the Public Domain?" Supported by John P. Irish of California and opposed by John M. Carey of Wyoming.

"An Annual Classified Census of Live Stock," C. W. Pugh of Arizona, Dr. Charles Greenwell of Colorado and C. B. Towers of Montana.

Election of Bank Officers.

Meetings of stockholders of the three national banks in the city were held yesterday and directors and officers chosen by two of the banks. Owing to the absence of the cashier of the Chicago & Northwestern National Bank the stockholders met and adjourned until Saturday.

These directors were chosen by the stockholders of the Union Stock Yards National Bank: J. A. Creighton, L. L. Kountze, Herman Kountze, F. H. Davis, T. Kountze, J. J. Roche, Thomas B. McPherson, Samuel McKelbert and J. C. French. The only change in the directory was the substitution of Samuel McKelbert of Chicago to succeed P. A. Valentine.

The directors of the Chicago & Northwestern National Bank are: J. J. Roche, president; J. C. French, vice president; Thomas B. McPherson, cashier; John C. French, assistant cashier. At the Packers' National Bank the meeting was brief. One change was made in the directory. F. McGivern, president of the Commercial National Bank of Fremont, taking the place of Fred Eads. Here is the directory: John F. Coad, C. D. Brown, W. Trumble, Luther Drake, Elmer E. Byson, F. McGivern, Arthur Gates, F. J. Moriarty, J. E. Curti. Officers for the ensuing year: John F. Coad, president; A. W. Trumble, vice president; Frank J. Moriarty, cashier; Charles A. Dunham, assistant cashier.

Hard Luck Story.

"Talk about hard luck stories," said a well known business man to a representative of The Bee last night, "I just learned of a case where something more than sympathy is needed. A packing house employee with a wife and five children, the eldest 10 years old, managed by hard work to save up $100 which he hoped to use to make the first payment on a home of his own. With him lived a brother. The brother was taken sick and some of this fund had to go for medical treatment and drugs. Then the wife fell sick and after quite a long illness died, leaving the husband without a penny with which to pay funeral expenses. When the wife died there was little, if any, food in the house and no one to care for the little ones. The man became aware of the facts in the case and provided temporary relief. Arrangements are now being made to have the children sent to a home, temporarily, until the father can earn enough to pay the bills now hanging over his head and arrange to bring his children back to him."

Laughing at Roberts.

Patrons of the public schools and members of the Board of Education are laughing at Member Roberts for having introduced a motion increasing the salaries of all of the teachers $5 a month. This action on Roberts' part was taken because it was desired by the board to increase the salary of one teacher who had introduced a motion increasing the salaries of all of the teachers $5 a month. This action on Roberts' part was taken because it was desired by the board to increase the salary of one teacher who had introduced a motion increasing the salaries of all of the teachers $5 a month.

Miller on Charity.

Councilman Robert Miller is chairman of the committee on charity, said yesterday that the cold snap had caused an increased demand for fuel and food. In every case where aid is asked Mr. Miller makes a personal investigation and sees for himself what is needed. As compared with last year, there are few calls for assistance. This is considered a good evidence of general prosperity and goes to show that the city is maintaining a healthy financial growth. In a majority of the cases where aid is given there is or has been sickness in the family, thus causing a demand for immediate relief.

Another Notice of Claim Filed.

Dan Donovan has notified the city officials that he sustained a broken rib by reason of a defective sidewalk at Thirty-sixth and C streets and will hold the city responsible. As soon as a notice of the kind is filed with the city clerk the special agent of City Attorney Lambert takes hold of the case, looks up evidence, assures himself of the facts in the case and makes a report in writing to the legal department. The information thus secured is used by the city attorney in combating claims when filed and especially when cases are called in the courts.

Odd Fellows Install Officers.

On Monday night the 148 officers of South Omaha lodge No. 148, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, were duly installed. C. Peterson, noble grand; George W. Knight, vice grand; Bert Pollett, secretary; J. D. Bennett, treasurer; trustees: N. D. Mann, T. Munger, E. H. Roberts. This lodge is in a very prosperous condition and new members are being initiated every month. The present membership of the lodge is 150.

Maile City Gossip.

John Courtright will be home from Chicago tonight.

Miss Jessie Weston of Logan, Ia., is the guest of Miss Lou Gibson.

Inspector Jones reports that all of the smallpox patients are doing nicely.

Mat McCine has tendered his resignation as a member of house committee No. 1.

Mrs. C. C. Long died Monday night at the home of her daughter in Alma, Neb.

Rev. J. A. Johnson and family have moved into the new Methodist parsonage on N street.

The King's Daughters will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Beck, over Collins' music store.

The Army packing house will be closed all day today on account of the funeral of Philip D. Armour.

Joseph J. McInnis is on the mend, but it is feared that if he recovers his lower limbs will be paralyzed.

Miss John Boyd Mallan will give a solo at the Wednesday evening service at the Presbyterian church.

Rev. Poucher of Tekamah expects to continue revival meetings at the Methodist church the balance of this month.

All of the corporations have now paid their 1900 tax and City Treasurer Roy W. Will have plenty of money on hand until he issues a warrant call.

Marriage Licenses.

The following licenses to wed were issued at the office of the county clerk yesterday.

ROOSEVELT IS BOUND WEST

Vice President-Elect Is Out on a Hunting Trip.

HE PASSES THROUGH OMAHA TODAY

Rough Rider Will Tarry Here Only Five Minutes, But Will Be Tendered Impromptu Reception at Union Station.

Vice President-elect Theodore Roosevelt will pass through Omaha this afternoon. He is going to Colorado, Arizona and Mexico to hunt big game and he will probably return with a well-filled game bag, for he bears the distinction of usually getting what he goes after.

Governor Roosevelt will be accompanied by a party of friends and they will occupy a private car on the Rock Island train which arrives in this city from Chicago this afternoon at 1:25. The vice president-elect will only be permitted to tarry here five minutes, because his train will start on its journey toward Denver and his ultimate destination at the expiration of that time.

It is a certainty that during Governor Roosevelt's brief stop in Omaha his mind will revert to his last visit to this city. In his mind's eye will appear the picture of a great multitude of people, wildly excited and proclaiming their faith and confidence in the man who stood before them in the political principles represented by him. This is the picture of Theodore Roosevelt, and the people were Nebraska who filled the big tented pavilion at Fifteenth and Capitol avenue and participated in one of the notable republican rallies.

Warm Spot for Omaha.

Governor Roosevelt went away from Omaha at that time with a warm spot in his heart for this city and its people and this sentiment and esteem was naturally increased when Nebraska rolled up a splendid majority for the ticket, the second place on which Governor Roosevelt occupied.

It will be but a short time until Governor Roosevelt will be called to assume the duties of vice president of the United States. He is tearing himself away now for a brief respite from the arduous strain of his public career and will enjoy his vacation in the sport which he loves above all other outdoor amusements—hunting.

The Rock Island train on which Governor Roosevelt's private car will be attached will arrive at the union depot this city. It left Chicago last night and reports received enroute show that it is running on schedule to the dot. Consequently, it is likely to arrive here promptly at 1:25, and many Omaha people will be at the depot to give the nation's next vice president a friendly greeting.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Vice President-elect Theodore Roosevelt is hunting. He is on a hunting trip and expects to be gone about six weeks. He will return in time to be in Washington a few days before the inauguration. Mr. Roosevelt refused to discuss politics, saying his jaunt was to one of pleasure and recreation, and that he would not give a thought to matters pertaining to business.

FRAME HOUSE FOR THE GOAT

AK-SAR-BEN Practically Decides to Erect Meeting Place and Work Shop Down Town.

It is almost as good as settled that the future den of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will be a large wooden building, to be built in the center of the city at a cost of between $5,000 and $9,000, as reported in The Bee and other papers. At a meeting of the board of governors, held at the Ak-Sar-Ben club last night, the proposition to erect such a building was the sole topic of discussion and, although definite action was deferred until Monday night, the plan will in all probability be carried out.

It is the intention of the governors to lease ground in the downtown district and put up a frame building about one-half or two-thirds the size of the Coliseum. The building will be designed primarily for a workshop, for the building and storage of floats, but it will be adapted also to the mysterious maneuvers of the Ak-Sar-Ben goat on initiation nights.

Lingering In Grippe Couch.

G. Vacher, 157 Osgood St., Chicago, says: "My wife had a very severe case of grippe, and it left her with a very bad headache. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50-cent bottle cured her cough entirely." Price, 25c and 50c. Funeral of Mrs. John Pray.

The funeral of Mrs. John Pray was held Tuesday afternoon at Castellor Street Presbyterian church, the services being conducted by Rev. Allison. The pallbearers were: Messrs. E. Willett, E. A. Knapp, Th. Johnson, W. J. Shannon, J. H. Wright and Joel Wright. Interment was made at Prospect Hill cemetery and the services both at the church and at the grave were largely attended by friends of the deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Pray were old residents of the south part of the city and Mrs. Pray's sudden death was a shock to her circle of friends. Just before returning Saturday night she was seized with a sudden fainting spell and fifteen minutes later was dead.

BANKERS HOLD ELECTIONS

Annual Meeting of All the Banks in This City Are Held.

Officers Report That Financial Institutions of the City Were Never as Thriving as They Are at Present.

Every bank in Omaha held its annual meeting yesterday for the purpose of reviewing the past year's business and electing officers for the ensuing year. In each instance the reports on the business of the last twelve months submitted by the officers were highly gratifying, showing the banks to be in splendid condition.

There has been a notable increase in deposits during the year and the loans and discounts have also grown to correspond with Omaha's expanding business. The bankers unite in declaring that the financial institutions of the city were never in such a thriving condition as they are at present.

Few changes were made in the directorates of the banks, the old boards being re-elected in almost every case. Wherever there was a change it was made by the unanimous vote of the stockholders.

But Few Changes.

The only changes were made at the Commercial National, where Guy C. Barton was added to the board of directors, at the First National, where C. T. Kountze was elected a director in place of C. D. Rustin, deceased, and at the National Bank of Commerce, where the board was reduced from six to five in number, the retiring member being Lee W. Sprafkin, who has gone into the insurance business. The directors of the various banks for the ensuing year are:

First National—Herman Kountze, John A. Creighton, F. H. Davis, J. M. Woolworth, William A. Paxton, William P. Allen, W. S. Poppleton, Charles T. Kountze and Luther Kountze.

Omaha National—J. H. Millard, O. W. Mink, Erastus Young, N. W. Wells, J. J. Brown, E. W. Nash, G. C. Barton, A. J. Simpson and William Wallace.

CREPE AND WEEDS IN VAIN

This Widow Doesn't Seem to Know Where Relief She.

A woman who claims to have been married to Peter Gurny in the Murray hotel, this city, eleven years ago, has just been informed by a district judge in Denver that she didn't marry Peter at all, but some other man who bore not even a faint resemblance.

This somewhat disconcerting information is the woman's only reward, apparently, for a vigorous endeavor she has been making during the last six or eight months to establish herself as the Denver capitalist's widow—an endeavor in which she attempted to enlist Mr. P. Higby and William Anderson, two Omaha hotel men who were at that time employed at the Murray's register desk. She came to Omaha last summer, interviewed each of them repeatedly, rehearsed some rather unusual details of the wedding and eventually offered to each $5,000 if he would make affidavit that he had witnessed the ceremony and remembered her as one of the principals.

The clerks felt dubious about her ability to produce so much money, but to relieve her anxiety, they nearly ruptured blood vessels in an endeavor to recall the incident. In this they failed, and the woman disappeared.

She has since spent her time in Denver, where it was not known that Mr. Gurny ever had a wife, and where the judge deputed to be "shown" before making any partition of the $70,000 estate for her benefit. She responded with an array of witnesses, but in giving their testimony they described the groom as a tall man with other facial adornment than a mustache. The court and jury nearly everyone else in Denver remembered Mr. Gurny as a short man with a bushy beard—a veritable Santa Claus, in fact—and the woman was turned down with an admonition to go forth and discover whose affidavit she really is before again taking the attention of magistrates.

If Gurny ever had a will prepared, it was probably destroyed in the explosion that wrecked his hotel on Lawrence street in 1894, in which he and forty guests lost their lives.

"My Head! My Head!"

Sudden Blindness and Dizziness. What Causes It?

The first step to the finding of a cure for any disease is to find its cause. And it's a notable fact that the cause of a disease may be quite remote from its manifestations. Headache, spots before the eyes and dizziness are only symptoms of disease. When the experienced physician is confronted with these symptoms in a woman he enquires at once as to the condition of the woman's health. He knows that the general health is intimately related to the local womanly health, and from the very symptoms he diagnoses derangement or disease of the delicate womanly organism. So far he is right. But when he begins to treat the disease he has located how often he continued the medicine until I had taken nine bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and nine bottles of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and six vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets.' I also followed special directions for home treatment (which he advised), and the result was wonderful. My bad feelings left me and I can work with comfort now. I give all the praise to Dr. Pierce and his remedies, for I believe they saved my life. Our family physician said I could not get well.

"You can publish this, for I am willing to let others know how much I suffered and what cured me when others failed."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity,
